

BOSSS COURIER DIVISION

Bosss courier division has been delivering impeccable and reliable service to the Marine and allied industry for over 8 years.

During this time, they have continuously improved their service offering, firmly placing them as the preferred courier company. To further endorse this, all drivers are trained and fully insured.

They are controlled 24/7 by our efficient control room who constantly liaise with clients, updating them on job progress.

Each step of our operation is carefully scripted into procedures against which our drivers are coached to provide seamless and safe service.
